INDEX-VOLUME XI.

RACE TRAITS AND TENDENCIES OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO.

| PAGES | PAGES |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| African Repository, colonization, 104 | |
| Agriculture and negro labor, 251, | Brain of negro, 185-18 Browne, Prof. H. M., on negro |
| | |
| 266; land ownership, 266-267 | |
| Ainos, inter-mixture of, with Jap- | Bruce, Phil. Alex., on insanity, |
| anese, | |
| Alcoholism, prevalence of, 121-126 | |
| Alexander, Dr. Archibald, on race | 228; rape, 231-232; negro |
| amalgamation, 194 | |
| Algeria, colonization of, 316 | |
| American, Baltimore, wholesale | Bryce, James, on amalgamation, 195 |
| marrying, 237 | Buchannan, Dr. W. J., 158 |
| American Missionary, on moral- | Cairnes, John Elliot, on slave |
| ity in West Indies, | |
| Amherst Students, physical devel- | Cancer, prevalence of, 117-118 |
| opment of, | Carroll, H. K., report on church |
| Anthropological Review, reports | statistics, 209-211 |
| on "The Negro as a Soldier," . 75 | Cartwright, Dr., on causes of sui- |
| Anthropological statistics of U. S. | cide, |
| Army, 71 | Catholic, Kansas City, on number |
| Appendicitis, hability of negro | of colored Catholics, 211 |
| to, | Census, eleventh, its accuracy, 2. |
| Armstrong, Gen. S. C., on negro | (For reports, see under Billings, |
| labor, 251 | Dr J. S.) |
| Aryan race, superiority of, . 312-318 | Child-birth, deaths from, 115-116 |
| Atrophy, infant mortality due to, 66 | Church membership, 210; prop- |
| Austin, Amory, on rice cul- | erty, 211 |
| ture, | Clark, Dr. Robert, on causes of |
| Bates, H. W., on suicide among | suicide, |
| negroes, | Colonization of negroes in Mex- |
| Bengalese, weight and stature of, 158 | ico, 28-31; in Liberia, 104; of |
| Billings, Dr. J. S., work on | French in Algeria, 316 |
| eleventh census, 33; life tables, | Constitution, Atlanta, on rape, . 232 |
| 58; census reports on infant | Consumption, its importance as |
| mortality, 66; on consumption, | related to negro mortality, 69; |
| 84; pneumonia, 86; scrofula | death rate in Charleston, 70; |
| and venereal diseases, 94; tu- | during the war, 71-75; in Brit- |
| mor and cancer, 117; liver dis- | ish army, 77; in West Indies, |
| eases, 125; suicide, 139 | 78-80; under Freedmen's Bu- |
| Birth rate of negroes, 33-35 | reau, 80-82; in cities, 83; ac- |
| Births, premature and still, 65 | cording to age groups, 84; in- |
| Bishop, S. E., on degeneration of | crease of death rate from, 86 |
| Hawaiians, 321-323 | Conway, Moncure D., on crime |
| "Black Belt," the 19 | in the South, |
| Blair, Senator H. W., on New | Cooper, Peter, |
| Hampshire climate, 26 | Corson, Dr. Eugene, on mortal- |
| Bodichon, M., on race crossing, . 178 | ity in Savannah, 53 |
| | |

| Cotton culture, 260-264; manu- | Freedmen's Bureau, hospital re- |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| factures | ports, on causes of mortality, |
| Country Gentleman, on negro | 80-82; scrofula and venereal |
| labor, | diseases, 90; malarial and ty- |
| Crandall, Dr. R. Percy, disinfec- | phoid fevers, 98; yellow fever, |
| | 107; small pox, III; cancer, |
| tion in Hayti, | 120; alcoholism, 123; insanity |
| Croup, prevalence of, 113-114 | and lunacy, |
| Darby, William, on negro popu- | Freedman's Savings and Trust |
| | Co 288-201 |
| lation, | Fraude James Autony on inter- |
| | Froude, James Antony, on inter- |
| Debility, as a cause of infant mor- | marrying, 196, 201; morals in |
| tality, | West Indies, 234; self govern- |
| De Bow, J. D. B., on negro popu- | ment, 243 |
| lation, | Geoffrey, Lille, 186 |
| Delirium tremens, mortality from, 123 | Gilliam, Prof. E. W., on increase |
| De Saussure, Dr. H. W., on mor- | of negro population, 2-! |
| tality in Charleston, 55-56 | Girth of chest of negroes, accord- |
| Diarrhoea, mortality from, 66 | ing to weight, 152, 155, 160; |
| Diphtheria, its prevalence, . 113-114 | according to stature, 160; ac- |
| Dirt eating, | cording to age, 161 |
| Dirt eating, | Gobineau, on intermixture of |
| in Algeria, 318 | races, 178, 195 |
| Duncan, Sara J., the Eurasians, . 196 | Gould, Dr. B. A., on susceptibil- |
| Eaton, Rev. John, efforts for | ity of negroes to disease, 71; |
| negro education, 213 | weight of colored soldiers, 151, |
| negro education, 213 Edinburg Review, the theory of | 153, 155; pulmonary capacity, |
| amalgamation of races, 189 | 162, 163, 165; respiration 165- |
| Education, of negro physicians, | 167; lifting strength, 168; color |
| 62; before emancipation, 212- | |
| 213; under Freedman's Bureau, | blindness, 169; physique of |
| | mulattoes, |
| 213; attendance at schools, | |
| 214; higher education, 215-216; | tion during war, |
| Leroy-Beaulieu's views, 249; ed- | Gulick, Rev. Chas., the Hawai- |
| ucation and negro labor, 274; | Hamilton, Archibald, decline of |
| cost of, 304 | Hamilton, Archibaid, decline of |
| Elmira Reformatory, measure- | the Maories, 320 |
| ments of negro inmates, 156 | Hawaiians, decrease in numbers, |
| Eurasians, the Evening Post, N. Y., on negro | 319; race characteristics, . 321-323 |
| Evening Post, N. Y., on negro | Haycraft, Dr. John B., on effect |
| colonization, 30-31; on immo- | of phthisis, |
| rality in Jamaica, 241; on ne- | Hickman, H. H., negroes in cot- |
| gro labor, | ton mills, 278 |
| Expectation of life for whites and | Hitchcock, Prof. E., physical de- |
| colored, 57 | velopment of Amherst stu- |
| Featherman, A., the Hawaiians, 321 | dents, 172-173 |
| Fecundity, influence of race cross- | dents, |
| ing on, 179 | Indians, 325 |
| ing on, | Horlbeck, Dr. H. B., mortality in |
| Fevers, malarial, typhoid, etc., | Charleston, 53 |
| liability of negro to, 95-97; | Charleston, |
| prevalence during war, 98; after | cation 213 |
| emancipation, 99-102; in West | Hubbard, Dr. H. B., the negro as |
| Indies 102-104 | a soldier, 175 |
| Fortune, T. T., on race amalgama- | a soldier, |
| tion, 193 | 16 221 |
| Foster, Dr. Jas., the negro as a | Humboldt, Alexander, on dirt |
| | eating, 137 |
| Foster, H. G., on negro labor, 263 | Hunt, Dr. Sanford B., on liability |
| | |

| of negro to pulmonary disease, | Life Tables, 58-59 |
|---|--|
| 75-76; to malarial and typhoid | Lifting strength of negro, 168 |
| fevers, 96-97; on suicide, 137; | Low, A. A., 289 |
| negro traits, 157; expansion of | Low, A. A., |
| thorax, 159; negro as a soldier, | groes, 120-134 |
| 175; weight of brain, 185 | |
| Hutchinson, Dr. Lohn, chest ex- | gamation, 190 |
| pansion, 163 | Lynching, 229-234 |
| Illegitimacy, in Washington, D. | Lynching, |
| C., 203, 235; in Jamaica, 239 | |
| Illiteracy, 213 | 1 2 1 2 1 0 1 |
| Immorality, sexual, prevalence | |
| among negroes, 95 | a soldier, 174 Mackay, T., "The English Poor," 307 |
| Indians, suicide among, 138; in- | Mackie, C. P., negro colonization, 30 |
| tercourse with whites, 197; pro- | Malaria. (See Fevers.) |
| ficiency in agriculture, 283; | Maories, decrease in numbers, 319-320 |
| decrease in numbers, 319; de- | Massy, on negro labor in Missis- |
| generation, | |
| Ingle, Edward, church member- | ippi, 252, 268 Maxwell, Dr. J. C., the negro as |
| ship of slaves, 210 | a soldier, |
| Insanity, 126-134 | a soldier, |
| Intemperance. (See alcoholism.) | Medical Examiner, N. Y., prev- |
| Intermarriages, statistics of, in | alence of suicide, 134 |
| Michigan, 198; Rhode Island, | Medical News, on medical edu- |
| 199; Connecticut, 199; Boston, | cation of negroes, 61 |
| 200; Bermuda, 201 | Medical attendance, neglect in |
| Jamaica, medical service in, 64; | procuring, 62-64 |
| immorality, illegitimacy and | Michel, Dr. Middleton, on preva- |
| illiteracy, 239-240 | lence of cancer |
| Jason, Rev. Wm., wholesale mar- | Migration. (See Population.) |
| rying, | Mill, J. S on social and moral |
| Jews, intermarriages of, with | in American |
| | Milne, Joshua, the reliability of |
| Christians, | statistics, 144 |
| labor, | statistics, |
| Kansas City Schools, measure- | Morselli, Enrico, on prevalence |
| ments of pupils, 156-159 | of suicide 124 T42 |
| Kennedy, Jos. C. G., on negro | of suicide, |
| population 2 | in Delaware, 237; in West In- |
| population, | dies, |
| | Morris Chas superiority of white |
| Kidd, Benjamin, human progress, | Morris, Chas., superiority of white race, 313-314 Mortality, board of health re- |
| 209; social inefficiency, 328 | Mortality hoard of health re- |
| Knox, Robert, on race crossing, 178 | ports, 37-38; death rates in |
| Labor, negro, in agriculture, 251; | southern cities, 39; according |
| tobacco culture, 252-258; rice | to age groups, 42-44, 55-56; |
| culture, 258-260; cotton cul- | rates for whites and negroes, |
| ture, 260-268; report of Dept. | 45-46; according to age and |
| of Agriculture, 264-265; wages, | sex, 46-48; according to con- |
| 265; occupations, 271, 281; | jugal condition, 48-49; for dif- |
| skill and wages, 272-273; in- | ferent periods of time, 53-55; |
| fluence of education, 274; labor | causes of, 66-67; infant mor- |
| riots, 276; vocations in cities, | tality, 66-69; during the war, |
| 281-287; influence of color | 74. See also under Consump- |
| prejudice | tion, Scrofula, etc. |
| Leffingwell, Dr. Albert, on race | Mulattoes, medical opinions, 182-183 |
| amalgamation, 193 | Mutual Life Ins. Co., N. Y., 149-154 |
| Leprosy, at St. Christopher, . 92 | Newsholme, Arthur, on mortal- |
| Leroy-Beaulieu, P., on education, 249 | ity statistics, |
| , | |

Index.

| Mostolgia, a cause of autoide, 130 | Rogers, Dr. D. 1., on Danomeyan |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Nott, Dr. J. C., liability of negro | settlement and race mixture, . 176 |
| to yellow fever, 106 | Russell, Robert, on tobacco cul- |
| Otken, Chas. H., crime among | ture, 255 |
| free negroes, 217 | St. John, Sir Spencer, 79 |
| Outdoor relief, 245 | Sanitary Commission, reports. |
| | |
| Page, Thos. Nelson, negro educa- | (See Dr. B. A. Gould.) |
| tion, 304 | Scales, Dr. T. S., mortality in |
| Pauperism, in the country at | Mobile, 53 |
| large, 243-244; in Cincinnati, | Scarlet fever, mortality from, 113-114 |
| 245-246; pauper funerals, 246-248 | Scrofula, prevalence during the |
| Pennick, Bishop, accumulation | war, 87-89; in the West In- |
| | dies, 91-93; in southern states, 93-95 |
| | |
| Perier, on race crossing, 178 | Schreven, John, rice culture, 259 |
| Phillips, Wendell, on race amal- | Sentinel, Augusta, education and |
| gamation, 190 | religion, 211 |
| Physicians, colored, 63 | Singleton, Benjamin, 24 |
| Playfair, Consul, the colonization | Smallpox, prevalence and mortal- |
| 2 44 1 | ity from, 110-113 |
| Pneumonia, mortality from, 84–86 | Smeeton, S. P., medical attend- |
| | |
| Population, negro, growth in | ance in Jamaica, 64; illegit- |
| country at large, 3-6; in sec- | imacy, 240 |
| tions, 6-9; urban and rural dis- | Soldiers, negroes as, 77-79 Sommering, Dr. S. T., 172 |
| tricts, 10-12; large cities, 12- | Sommering, Dr. S. T., 172 |
| 17; migration to cities, 17-19; | Spencer, Herbert, on unchastity, 207 |
| concentration in rural districts, | State, Columbia, tobacco culture, 257 |
| 19-23; "exodus" of 1879, 23- | Stature of negroes, . 150-154, 156, 160 |
| as : colonization | |
| 25; colonization, 28–31 | Stevenson, Dr. John R., the ne- |
| Prejudice, race, 284-285 | gro as a soldier, 174 |
| Progressive South, the, on pegro | Still births, 65 |
| labor, | Stokes, Henry, on negro labor, . 252 |
| Property, accumulation of, 287- | Stone, Alfred, on negro labor, . 252 |
| 292; valuations in Georgia, | Streeter, Dr. John, the negro as a |
| 293-294; Virginia, 295-297; | soldier, |
| North Carolina, 297-298 | Suicide, rarity among negroes, |
| Prostitution (See Morelity) | |
| Prostitution. (See Morality.) | 134; epidemics of, 135; causes, |
| Provost-Marshal General's re- | 136-138; prevalence, 138-142; |
| ports, examination of recruits, | opinions of authorities, . 143-144 |
| 72-73; alcoholism, 122; weight | Surgeon General, report on de- |
| of negro recruits, 150; girth of | fective vision, 120 |
| chest, 160; mulattoes, 182-183 | Syphilis. (See under Venereal Di- |
| Prudential Life Ins. Co., 149 | seases.) |
| Puerperal diseases mortality | |
| Puerperal diseases, mortality | Tilton, Theodore, on race amal- |
| from, | gamation, 190 |
| Pulmonary capacity of negroes, | Tobacco culture, 252-256 |
| 162-163, 165 | Topinard, Paul, on race crossing, |
| Pulse, frequency of, in negroes, 167 | 179; influence of race, 310 |
| Race, influence of, 310; superior- | Tradesman, Chatanooga, negro |
| | labor, 252-253; skill and wages, |
| ity of Aryan, | 272-273 287 |
| | Tribune, Chicago, lynchings in |
| fects of vision among, 169 | Trioune, Chicago, lynchings in |
| Religion, creeds and church mem- | United States, 231 |
| Reyburn, Dr. Robert. (See | Tucker, J. L., morals of negroes, 207 |
| Reyburn, Dr. Robert. (See | Tumor, prevalence, 117-118 |
| Freedmen's Bureau.) | Tullock Major, on colonization, 317 |
| Respiration, reports on, 165 | Typhoid fever. (See Fevers.) |
| Ribot, Th., on dirt eating, 137 | Venereal diseases, prevalence be- |
| | |
| Rice culture, 257–260 | fore and during war, 86-89; in |
| | |

| West Indies, 91-93; in southern states since the war, 93-95 | according to age and stature, 156-159 Westermark, Edward, "Law of |
|---|--|
| Vision, defective, | Similarity," 180-181; amalga- |
| Vitality, importance in race prob- | mation of races, 17 |
| lem, | Wey, Dr. H. B., measurements of |
| Vogt, Carl, on Lille Geoffrey, . 186 | |
| Wages, 265, 272-273 | |
| Waitz, Theo, on race crossing, . 180 | |
| Walcker, Dr. Carl, marriages be- | Williams, Dr. John, on suicide |
| tween Christians and Jews, 192 | by dirt eating, |
| Walker, F. A., power of law- | Wright, Col. Wm., ownership of |
| makers for evil, 242 | land by negroes, 26 |
| Washington Life Ins. Co., . 149-154 | |
| Weight of negroes, 149-154; according to girth of chest, 155; | 105-106; in different localities and periods of time, 106-110 |

APPRECIATION AND INTEREST.

| VOLUME PAGES. | VOLUME PAGES. |
|---|--|
| Absolute standard, difficulties, 432-433 | China, exchange rates, 407 |
| Andrews, Pres. E. B, apprecia- | Civil War, effect on interest rates, 380 |
| tion and debts, 426 | Clark, Prof. J. B., appreciation |
| Annuities, perpetual, present val- | and the rate of interest, 347; |
| ues not affected by standard, | absolute standard, 431 |
| 363; formula, 364 | "Commodity" standard, 344 |
| Appreciation, different interpreta- | Contracts, call for dollars, not |
| tions of meaning, 344; average | value, 426; importance of in- |
| rate, 370; changes in value fore- | violability, 426 |
| seen in business, 377-379; bor- | Debtor's gain by appreciation, |
| rowers, 379; loss due to, 414 | amount of, 414; losses and jus- |
| "Average" rate of interest with | tice, 426-427; debtors and gold |
| varying rates of appreciation, | standard, 427 |
| formula, Banker's Magazine, "Notes on | Debts and bimetallism, 424-425 |
| Banker's Magazine, "Notes on | De Haas, Jacob, appreciation and |
| Money Market," 409 | rates of interest, 431 |
| Belmont-Morgan Syndicate, in- | Demonetization, effect on silver, 393 |
| terest on "coin" and gold | Depreciation, borrower's gain by, 414 |
| bonds, | "Discourse Concerning the Cur- |
| Berlin interest rates and price | rencies of the British Planta- |
| movements, 403 | tions in America," extract, 346 |
| Bimetallism and currency bonds, | Economist, prophecies on silver, 394 |
| 382; effect of agitation on price | Falkner, Prof. R. P., statistics of |
| of silver bonds, 393; bimetal- | wages, 414 |
| lism could affect only unpaid | Foresight, as shown by gold pre- |
| debts, 424; universal bimetal- | mium, 383; its real extent, 418- |
| lism, 429 | 419; imperfection and inequal- |
| Bland Act, effect on price of rupee | ity of, 420 |
| paper, 391 | Gibbs, scarcity of gold and rates |
| paper, 391 Böhm-Bawerk, relation of interest | of interest, 399 |
| to present and future goods, | Giffen, R., appreciation and rates |
| 432; "Theory of Interest," 434 | of interest, 399 |
| Bonds, U. S., and "average" rates | Gold production and rates of in- |
| of interest, 370; interest real- | terest, 402 |
| ized, 381; effect of a free silver | Government bonds and "aver- |
| law, 382 | age" rates, |
| Borrower's loss and gain due to | Grant, Pres. U. S., veto of inna- |
| appreciation and depreciation, 414 | tion bill, 385 |
| | |

| ciation in 18J7-4, 385; inflation and interest rates, | Greenback sentiment and depre- | Labor standard, the resort of mo- nometallists, |
|--|------------------------------------|--|
| change, Hoarding result of expected appreciation, 1976. Hume, David, money and interest rates, 1977. Hume, David, money and interest rates, 1977. Hume, David, money and interest tates, 1977. Hume, David, money and interest to, 412; relation to borrowing, 414. Index numbers, objections to use of, 1978. India loans, in gold and silver, 388; rates realized since 1865, 389; closing of mints and price of rupee paper, 391; rates for specified periods, 397; interest on national debt, 1978. 1979. Sinterest, rate of, importance in loan contracts, 345-346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 407; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 405-407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 417-418; relation to price movements, 404; rinterest rates in relation to price movements, 405; respectively interest, 421; real and nominal rates, 421; real and nominal rates, 425; real and nominal rates, 425; respectively of respectively of respectively of respectively of respectively. | and interest rates, 409 | Land speculation, a case of zero |
| Hoarding, result of expected appreciation, 1972 Hume, David, money and interest rates, 1974 Hume, David, money and interest rates, 1974 Hong and the preciation, 1975 Hume, David, money and interest rates, 1975 Hume, 1975 | | |
| rates, 1 | Hoarding, result of expected ap- | fect prices, 428 |
| Incomes, relation of interest rates to, 412; relation to borrowing, 412 and nominal rates, 421; real and nominal rates, 421; real and nominal rates, 421; real and nominal rates, 436 and nominal rates, 437 ; possibility of, 374; effect on investments, 376 interest on national debt. 394-395 interest on indian contracts and contracts for term of years, 356; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 356; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 357-362; average rates, 366; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 421, 430; effect of increased of the price movements, 376; how determined under depreciation to interest to movements, 403; nor "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 387; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 387; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 400; effect of price movements, 400; relation to price mo | preciation, 373 | |
| Incomes, relation of interest rates to, 412; relation to borrowing, 11dex numbers, objections to use of, | | |
| to, 412; relation to borrowing, 144 Index numbers, objections to use of,,, | | Marshall Prof A money and |
| India loans, in gold and silver, 388; rates realized since 1865, 389; closing of mints and price of rupee paper, 391; rates for specified periods, 397; interest on national debt 394-395 Interest, rate of, importance in loan contracts. 345-346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of increased gold production, 402; Reserves and rates of interest, 397-402; relation of prices movements, 412, 419; legislation must not aim to affect, 428 Profits, as related to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 404; 102; relation to prices, 397; effect of increased gold production, 402; Relation to a fire fact of prices, 397; effect of | | commodity interest, 421 : real |
| of | | |
| of rupee paper, 391; rates for specified periods, 397; interest on national debt, 394–395 Interest, rate of, importance in loan contracts. 345–346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361–362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements and incomes during long price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and vages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price of gold bonds. Substitute of the price of gold production, 402; Reserves and rates of interest, 397–402; relation to business in general, 419; legislation must not aim to affect, 428 profits, as related to price movements, 403, and how prices, 397; effect of increased gold production, 402; Reserves and rates of interest, 397–402; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price affected by apperication, 402; relation to price affected b | of | Mill, J. S., |
| s89; closing of mints and price of rupee paper, 391; rates for specified periods, 397; interest on national debt, 394–395 Interest, rate of, importance in loan contracts 345–346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361–362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 397; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 412–417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 341 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 397; interest and minterest and sudges, 404; in silver standard, 341 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 397; interest and sudges, 404; in silver standard, 341 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 397; interest and sudges, 404; in silver standard, 397; interest and sudges, 404; in silver standard countries, 406–407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 412–417; commodity interest, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412, 417; commodity interest, 421; relation to price movements, 423; relation to more during long price movements, 412, 417; commodity interest, 421; relation to more during long price movements, 423; relation to more during long price movements, 425; relation to more during long price movements, 420; relation to price of bonds, 394; rates in silver standar | | Negative interest, 372; possibility |
| specified periods, 397; interest on national debt, | | |
| specified periods, 397; interest on national debt 394–395 [Interest, rate of, importance in loan contracts. 345–346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361–362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 403; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods. 433 [Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375] Japan, exchange rates,, 407 [Jeyons, W. S., discount rates and futerest.) | | |
| on national debt, 394-395 Interest, rate of, importance in loan contracts 345-346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 367-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 405-407; effect of price movements, 402; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | specified periods, 397; interest | wages, 404 : long time averages, 416 |
| loan coutracts 345-346; how determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 341 Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375 Japan, exchange rates,, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | on national debt, 394-395 | "Overstone Tracts," 346 |
| determined under depreciating standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 356; formula, 358 fresent value, meaning, 361; not affected by different modes of payment, 362 Price, Prof. Bonamy, low interest and business, 411 business, 421; relation of price movements, 409; relation to init the Orient, 407; relation to profits, 417-418; relation to profits, 417-418; relation to proments in general, 419; legislation must not aim to affect dby different modes of payment, 362 Price, Prof. Bonamy, low interest and business, 411 Prices, and rates of interest, 397-402; relation of price movements, 402; relation to profits, 417-418; relation to business in general, 419; legislation must not aim to affect, 428 Pricts, Prof. Bonamy, low interest and business, 421; relation of interest, 397-402; relation of price movements, 402; low interest, 497; legislation to must not aim to affect dby different modes of payment, 362 Price, and rates of interest, 397-402; relation of price movements and value, 49 | Interest, rate of, importance in | |
| standard, 351; under contracts for term of years, 354; formula, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; realand nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to must not aim to affect, 428 Profits, as related to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; new York rates in relation to price movements, 403; relation to movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to movements, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 409; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 403; relation to price movements, 404; relation to price, 417-418 Raguet, inter | | |
| affected by different modes of payment, 355; equivalence of rates, 360; as an element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375 Japan, exchange rates,, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| payment, 362 and element in "present value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 403; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 41; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 41; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation to finterest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 343 Invariable "standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable "standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable" standard, 345 Invariable "standard, 346 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable "standard, 346 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable" standard, 345 Invariable "standard, 346 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable "standard, 346 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable" standard, 346 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Invariable "standard countries, 360 Invariable "standard countries, 360 Invariable" standard countries, 360 Invariable "standard countries, 360 Invariable" standard countries, 360 Invariable "standard countries, 360 Invariable" standard countries, 360 Invariable "standard countries, 360 Invariable" | | |
| value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 490; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375 Japan, exchange rates,, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| value," 361-362; average rates, 366; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 490; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation,, 375 Japan, exchange rates,, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | as an element in "present | Price, Prof. Bonamy, low interest |
| 306; formula for varying rate, 368; rates realized on U. S. bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | value," 361-362; average rates, | and business, 411 |
| bonds, 381; in "coin" and "currency," 384; effect of resumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 402; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 490; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, | 366; formula for varying rate, | |
| sumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| sumption, 386; rates on India loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | "currency," 384: effect of re- | |
| loans, 389; for specified periods, 392; relation to high and low prices, 397; effect of scarcity of gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | sumption, 386; rates on India | fits, 417-418; relation to busi- |
| Profits, as related to price movements, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to morey and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to morey and capital, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | loans, 389; for specified periods, | |
| gold, 399; relation to rising and falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 (Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| falling prices, 401; effect of increased gold production, 402; Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominual rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 (Invariable) standard, 344 (Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 (Japan, exchange rates, 407) Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| Reserves and rates of interest, 392, 395, 405 Resumption and interest, 382, 385, 405 Resumption and interest, 382, 385, 405 Reserves and rates of interest, 382, 385, 405 Resumption and interest, 382, 385, 405 Rupee paper, price affected by governmental acts, 390–391 Sauerbeck, index tables 423 Sherman Act, effect on price of gold bonds, | | Raguet, interest rates in 1837 380 |
| Berlin and Paris rates in relation to price movements, 403; New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 (*Invariable "standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| New York rates in relation to price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| price movements and wages, 404; in silver standard countries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and feets. 423 Septeman Act, effect on price of gold bonds, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 390, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 394; rates in silver standard countries, 406 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, 300, 300, 300, 300, 300, 300, 300, 30 | | Rupee paper, price affected by |
| sherman Act, effect on price of gold bonds, | | Sourcheck index tables |
| tries, 406-407; effect of price movements, 405; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and fersest.) | | |
| movements, 409; real and nominal rates, 410, 430; relation to wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | gold bonds, 390 |
| wages and incomes during long price movements, 412-417; commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 465 Smith, Adam, money and interest rates, | | Silver, confidence in, a factor in |
| price movements, 412-417 commodity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | |
| modity interest, 421; relation of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 (Investments, as affected by appreciation, 5375 Japan, exchange rates, 547 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and fully from the subjection to, 428 Tooke, interest rates and fall of prices, 547 Japan, exchange rates, 548 Wages, as related to interest rates. 449 Wells, David A., 541 Zero interest. (See Negative Interest.) | | |
| of interest to money and capital, 430; complexity of the subject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 345 Japan, exchange rates, 457 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and fall of prices, 417 Wages, as related to interest rates. 404, 412 Wells, David A., 412 Zero interest. (See Negative Interest.) | | |
| ject, 430; relation of interest to present and future goods, 433 "Invariable" standard, 344 Investments, as affected by appreciation, 375 Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | Symmetallism, objection to, 428 |
| present and future goods, | | Tooke, interest rates and fall of |
| "Invariable" standard, | | |
| Investments, as affected by appreciation, | | |
| preciation, | | Wells, David A |
| Japan, exchange rates, 407 Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | | Zero interest. (See Negative In- |
| Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | Japan, exchange rates, 407 | |
| price of wheat, 398 | Jevons, W. S., discount rates and | |
| | price of wheat, 398 | |

